The Producer of the Year trophy is sponsored by Mosquito Park Enterprises, Rod and Lynnette Sather and Jumpoff Buffalo Ranch, Scott and Susan Peterson. On hand to present and accept the award for the ranch, at left, Rod and Lynnette Sather, Susan, Jayme, Jon and Scott Peterson and ranch manager, Joe Dickman and Sara Orth.

The Grand Champion Heifer was the Jumpoff entry in the Girlz Gone Wild Two Year Old Bred Heifer Challege. The Grand Champion Bull was the ranch's entry in the Yearling Bull class.

Scott noted later that he was very pleased to have his animals named grand champions in both the male and female classes in the same year AND win Producer of the Year.

At left, new DTBA President, Marielle Hewitt, presents Zane Holcomb with a plaque in appreciation of his years of service as the Show and Sale Chairman. "Grizz" as he is fondly called, has spent most of his time during the conferences out in the pens with judges and yard crews taking care of the buffalo and getting things ready for auction day. Thank you, Grizz, for all your efforts!

At right, outgoing President, Wendy Hutchinson, makes remarks after receiving her gift, a Kathy Sigle print titled "Heads Up". The print was one Wendy had wanted but also carried significant meaning for her time at the helm of the association. Many changes came about the past couple of years and Wendy was able to guide us and keep our head above water. Thank you, Wendy!

A Time To Reflect And Reward

the most successful in the country. The Limpert family hosted the Young Guns bull challenge for four years in a row, sacrificing their own pastures and feed pens for the class and at the same time, growing the class to new levels by opening up entry limits to allow three to four times the number of entries we previously saw. This took the class to a whole new level and set the standard very high.

Additionally, in 2014, with no host ranch available for the Girlz Gone Wild class, the Limperts again stepped up to the plate and took on this class along with the Young Guns. They made arrangements to pasture the heifers at another ranch, but all the work and final holding period was done at Slim Buttes.

This family is dedicated to the buffalo business and we are so fortunate to have them as members of the DTBA. Sandy was the first president of the association and served on the board for a number of years. Jacki took her turn on the board, serving as a director and then secretary/treasurer. The torch has been passed on to the next generation, with son Brodie moving up through the board and now presiding over the organization.

As a token of our appreciation for their contributions, Scott Peterson and Marielle Hewitt presented the family with customized miniature wine barrels and engraved flasks. Our thanks to this family for their generosity, dedication and unwavering support of the DTBA and its programs and members.

Watch for more photos in upcoming newsletters, on our Facebook page, our You Tube channel and on our website!

Outgoing board member and past president, Wendy Hutchinson, accepts an appreciation plaque from DTBA President, Marielle Hewitt.

Wendy has been a driving force behind the DTBA leadership and we truly appreciate all she has done for us...especially those financial spreadsheets!

Thanks to an astute uncle Lane, Taber Cammack was presented with the first ever Junior Producer Award! Taber has entered a bull in the Young Guns contest that past two years.

Slim Buttes Buffalo Ranch was named Producer of the Year for the second year in a row. The Limpert family, Sandy, Jacki, Brodie and Samantha, placed animals in the Young Guns, Girlz Gone Wild and Cutting Edge Carcass Heifer classes to claim the award.

Sponsors of the award include: Bradeen Auctions, Western Buffalo Company, Rocky Mountain Natural Meats, Mosquito Park Enterprises, Scranton Equity Feeds and 777 Ranch.
